35 questions for your next meeting

1. What are my child's strengths and motivators?
2. What has my child accomplished this year?
3. What is the goal of this IEP meeting?
4. Which of these goals are the top priority?
5. What can I do at home to support our goals?
6. Is this a SMART goal?
7. How do these goals set my child up for further education, independent living and employment?
8. How will we measure progress?
9. How often do you send progress reports?
10. What type of progress can I expect to see? What will this look like?
11. What if there isn't enough progress?
12. Will we be using benchmarks or objectives to follow progress?
13. What is the best way to contact you?
14. Can we schedule a follow up meeting in 6-12 weeks?
15. What do these supports look like on a daily basis?

© Nicole Schlechter 2021. Do not copy or duplicate without permission.

35 questions for your next meeting

16. How often is my child being pulled out the classroom on a daily basis?
17. How will my child's day look?
18. Who will provide these supports?
19. How will my child's classroom teacher be supported to implement these things?
20. Can you write that down?
21. Will my child be assessed according to grade level or developmental level?
22. Who will work on that with my child?
23. How? When? Where and how often per week?
24. What training does the staff have in this specific intervention?
25. Is this intervention the best option for my child?
26. What data do we have to show that?
27. What other supports and training should we consider?

© Nicole Schlechter 2021. Do not copy or duplicate without permission.

35 questions for your next meeting

28. Will my child need Extended School Year (ESY) services?
29. Does my child need a Behavior Intervention Plan?
30. Do we need any additional evaluation data?
31. I'd like to review the IEP and notes prior to signing.
32. When will the changes to his program begin?
33. How will we let my child know about any program changes?
34. If you are unsure of changes, I'd like to table this meeting to a future time.
35. If this was your child, what would you do differently?

© Nicole Schlechter 2021. Do not copy or duplicate without permission.